Satan and the Problem of Animal Suffering (2) In this post I will address some preliminary methodological issues before getting into the various theodicies (answers) to the problem of animal suffering: 1) I do not believe the Bible directly addresses this question, and there is therefore a need for caution, restraint, and humility in our ...

Satan and the Problem of Animal Suffering (2) - Soliloquium

Following his book God at War, Boyd here seeks to defend his scripturally grounded trinitarian warfare theodicy with rigorous philosophical reflection and insights from human experience and scientific discovery. He suggests that there is an alternative to the classical Calvinist understanding of the sovereignty of the trinitarian God and of the reality of Satan that sheds light on our fallen ...

Demons: Servants of Satan by John Blanchard

The real problem with the Satan hypothesis lies elsewhere. This paper begins by stating the Satan hypothesis and briefly sketching its scriptural and theological warrants in the Christian tradition. Second, it canvasses the objections that have been brought against the hypothesis and shows how each objection fails.
