Linda Andrews lives in Phoenix, Arizona with her husband, three children and a menagerie of domesticated animals. While she started writing a decade ago, she always used her stories to escape the redundancy of her day job as a scientist and never thought to actually combine her love of fiction and science.

Redaction: The Meltdown Part II eBook: Linda Andrews ...

"Redaction" by Linda Andrews was a decent book in my current favorite genre of books. This would be apocalyptic dystopian fiction. It was average though and would not put it in the great category of something I would read again in the future. There was not enough worldwide depth to it and little detail of the gradual collapse of civilization.

"Redaction, part II, The Meltdown" By Linda Andrews I read the first book in this three part series about an apocalyptic plague. Did not like it but for some reason I had already purchased the second volume. It must have had an interesting book cover synopsis. I had a responsibility to clean my plate though and so went ahead and read this one too.
