Reappraisals: Reflections on the Forgotten Twentieth Century. In less than a generation, the headlong advance of globalization, with the geographical shifts of emphasis and influence it brings in its wake, has altered the structures of thought that had been essentially unchanged since the European industrial revolution.

Reappraisals: Reflections on the Forgotten Twentieth ...

Reappraisals: Reflections on the Forgotten Twentieth Century. He then predicts that a new Marxism, plus a renewed faith in the state, may yet make a comeback as the injustices of globalisation are exposed. He also mourns the passing of the 20th-century intellectual (Edward Said, Albert Camus, Arthur Koestler) and "the strange death of liberal America" during the Bush administration.
