review 1: Stories like this are difficult to read because of the nature of the subject matter and the reality of the fact that this scenario is all too real for far too many and for that alone they should come with a label that states "I demand your full attention" emblazoned on the front. The story is Emery's, an abused teen who finally finds the courage to escape, to run from her ...

"You have no idea how much I want to kiss you right now. How many times I've thought of doing just that. Every time you were curled up against me on the couch, I wanted to kiss you. Every morning when you showed up, I wanted to kiss you. Every time you said goodnight to Lily and then slipped out my door? I wanted to kiss you before you left.
