Rite Of Passage Alexei Panshin

I read Alexei Panshin's Rite of Passage again. For some reason, this story is very close to my heart. It's a story of a young girl, Mia, living in a floating spaceship, facing the Trial of her society. This Trial is the mark of adulthood in their community of thirty thousand, their 'Rite of Passage'.

Alexei Panshin (Author of Rite of Passage) - Goodreads

I can see how Rite of Passage might be a teacher's choice of literature for a group of young adults, but there is far better young adult sci-fi out there: better prose, better dialogue, better themes. But I also recognize that Panshin was a trailblazer in his area of expertise. Still wouldn't listen to this again though.
