"David Shields's radical intellectual manifesto, Reality Hunger, is a rousing call to arms for all artists to reject the laws governing appropriation, obliterate the boundaries between fiction and nonfiction, and give rise to a new modern form."—Elissa Schapell, Vanity Fair "I don't think it would be too strong to say...

Reality Hunger: A Manifesto | David Shields

That is what David Shields proposes in "Reality Hunger: A Manifesto." He further argues that what all those things have in common is that they express or fulfill a need for reality, a need that is not being met by the old and crumbling models of literature. To call something a manifesto is a brave step.
