Prisoner 374215 is an enthralling short from the LHN event. The prisoner in question is being held in a prison/testing facility. No clue what he's being tested for but he's becoming weaker by the day. "Death would be a blessing, a welcome reprieve. So far, though, they had refused to let him die." "Scar" is assigned to guard him at night.

Prisoner 374215 (2013) About book: Oh my God! This was very dark & completely heart-wrenching. The title character's anguish is almost unbearable & the dehumanizing horror he was subjected to were very difficult to read. Yet I was completely riveted from the first page, wanting so badly for him to be saved. Thank God it does end well.

review 1: Whew!!! That reeled me in! I picked it up one minute and literally couldn't put it down. Almost missed my train. Anyway, what a fun ride. Take a deplorable setting, characters you don't trust enough to like, spaceships and prisoners of war and you've got this gem of a freebie by Angel Martinez.
