Ruth Sawyer (Author of Roller Skates) - Goodreads

This might be sold as non-fiction as we are told it is autobiographical. But it is written as a story and would sell better that way, I think. One of the most delightful books of the year — a vivid, lovable story of one year in a small girl's life, when her parents' trip to Italy and her own "boarding out" with the freedom of the city on roller skates — gave her a chance to be a real ...

Ruth Sawyer - Wikipedia

The conceit of Roller Skates is that it's a partial biography of the author/narrator, built on her childhood diary written in her tenth year. There may be some truth in this tale, but on the whole it's a fictional autobiography, as with Jane Eyre, David Copperfield or Catcher in the Rye. Ruth Sawyer did spend...
