Book Review: Redemption in Indigo by Karen Lord

Redemption in Indigo begins with an Introduction so frank and direct that for a couple pages I thought it was a preface by Karen Lord herself but, no, actually, it's the beginning of the book and this narrator is simply very self-aware about her storytelling and the reader's storylistening.

Redemption in Indigo « Karen Lord - ni-officesupplies.co.uk

"Redemption in Indigo is a brilliant little gem of a novel, as close to perfect as storytelling can be. It is hard to believe that such an intricate tale could be told in just about 200 pages. It is even harder to believe that this is Karen Lord's debut given how self-assured the narrative is.

Karen Lord is gifted. While not every sentence is beautiful, the good parts are exceptional. The novel shows a deep understanding of society and religion, great interweaving of sources, and most of all, great imagination. I never thought I'd find a cou-cou stick at the center of science fiction. I look forward to reading more Karen Lord in the ...
