The Queen's Own Fool is a novel about Mary Queen of Scots told by her court fool that she acquires in France. Filled with court intrigue, adventure, and the lure of realism this novel held my attention till the bitter end. I loved how the authors made the readers want to learn more about such an epic queen and time period.

Queen's Own Fool (2001) About book: I read this book many many years ago and remembered loving it. Recently, I started indulging in a guilty pleasure - The CW's Reign and once I binged watched the two seasons over a few weeks, I had to get more of the life of Mary, Queen of Scots (and preferably, something a little more historically accurate). I read a lot of Jane Yolen's work when I was younger ...
