Revived by Cat Patrick | 60second Book Review

Cat Patrick made these three friends seem like it was real and not like "it only happens in movies/books" type of relationship. The entire book was very good!! After I finished reading it, I was wondering if they would make a movie for it. I wish they would. Overall, the book Revived was sooo good! If I wanted I would re-read.

Instead, Revived focused mostly on Daisy starting her life over once again, trying to fit in her new school, & actually succeeding in making some good friends. I'm not saying this was a bad thing, but I felt like it was pretty unexpected. Even though I pictured the book differently, I enjoyed the story Cat Patrick wrote.

AUTHOR CAT PATRICK

When starting Revived by Cat Patrick, I wasn't sure what to expect.. other than a freakin' awesome cover. Seriously — check it out! It's got to be one of my all time favorites. Anyway, I had read some mixed reviews, and I felt like I didn't have a very good idea of what the story was actually about.

Revived by Cat Patrick will be a nice addition to a high school classroom library. The book focuses on a secret government program and the unintended consequences of never dying, of always being revived. I model reading whenever I can at school. For instance, I'll stand in the hall and read a book during passing periods.
