Queen Victoria: Demon Hunter is a fun, bloody, pulpy ride through history that will be extremely enjoyable to anyone willing to accept the book as just that. However, compared to other similar books I've read, Queen Victoria disappoints slightly. The writing from A. E. Moorat is surprisingly rich, although the book is littered with typos, which ...

Queen Victoria: Demon Hunter By A.E. Moorat

So this isn't going to win any prizes for literature but it's bloody good fun. The title's a bit of a misnomer though as Queen Victoria doesn't actually become a demon hunter until late on in the book when her beloved Albert is kidnapped by werewolves. So you have zombies and demons and an arse kicking monarch and it makes you so proud to be ...
