SARA'S LAUGHTER by Tom Milton. When I first read the synopsis to Sara's Laughter, the allegory was obvious, the storyline intriguing. And the allusion to Abraham and Sarah was indeed a true one; however, the way it manifested itself in Mr. Milton's story was unexpected.

SUMMIT BOOK REVIEWS: SARA'S LAUGHTER by Tom Milton

Sara's Laughter was a quick and easy read for me, despite the heavy subject matters of infertility and abortion. For some, it may be a more difficult read, such as a reader who has a differing opinion on the subject. The book is heavy on Catholicism, specifically strict Irish Catholicism.
