Rollback: Repealing Big Government Before the Coming ...

Rollback. Rollback takes an honest (and methodically cited) look at the record of big government: skyrocketing health-care costs, an out-of-control military, moral hazard in the markets, and a collapsing dollar. Even better, he offers clever, turnkey solutions that could restore the United States to being the breeding ground...

Rollback: Repealing Big Government... | Tom Woods

And so Woods continues, with the "Myth of Good Government", the "War on Drugs", and finally, how the state can be rolled back from its current pre-eminent position in the United States (or at least how this inevitable rollback can be accelerated and neutralised, to avoid the U.S. government retaliating upon Americans and the rest of the world, as its funding and power base shrinks).

Rollback: Repealing Big Government Before the Coming ...

Book Review: Rollback: Repealing Big Government Before the Coming Fiscal Collapse When the bestriding Colossus of Murray N. Rothbard departed this mortal coil, he left the rest of us with the hallowed gift of his thoughts, his books, and his ideas, as well as an occasional secret desire to wear bow ties, and the happily-reverberating sound of that anarchic cackle.

Rollback, Feb 10 2011 | Video | C-SPAN.org

Rollback takes on both liberal and conservative conventions and their habits of mind. The objective of the work is dramatically ambitious. Woods writes with relentless precision, like an intellectual surgeon, to convince the reader that the government is not what it says (the source of security, prosperity, peace, justice, health) it is but is rather the opposite and thereby we can and should ...
