I thought that Running Loose was a pretty good book. Chris Crutcher could've made it better in some parts. He was really slow in some parts and in others he was just too fast. Otherwise it was a good book. I didn't think that I was going to like it very much because it wasn't in the genre of books that I usually read.

Running Loose - By: Chris Crutcher

Like the town of Trout, Idaho described in Crutcher's first book Running Loose, Cascade was a sparsely populated mountain logging town – a village that patiently endured the quick temper and voracious curiosity apparent during most of Crutcher's childhood. It was also a small town that celebrated extracurricular sports.
