Recalculating Kindle Edition Jennifer Weiner

Jennifer Weiner has a particular gift for breezy storytelling. It's that breeziness, in part, that's helped to brand her insightful, funny work about suburban women as "chick lit," a term she both embraces and resents.

Recalculating is like nothing I have ever read from Jennifer. The emotional abuse is something I am personally familiar with, which lead me to read the story, the physical abuse is something I couldn't imagine. The rest of the story is not close to the work I have loved from Ms. Weiner, yet it is a page turner.

I love Jennifer Weiner and think it's great that she wrote a short story in a new genre. I also love that it's called "recalculating," because my sister and I always laugh when my GPS says "recalculating." We're just SURE she says it with an attitude. The story centers around a woman who suffered abuse at the hands of her husband for years.
